|-----------|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|---------------|
| 1  | 1969        | Little darling, it's been a long, cold,lonely winter                              |             |               |
| 2  | 1974        | Although I search myself, it's alwayssomeone else I see                           |             |               |
| 3  | 1978        | She swam by me, she got a cramp                                                       |             |               |
| 4  | 1979        | Dialled about a thousand numberslately, almost rang the phone off thewall     |             |               |
| 5  | 1983        | I used to think maybe you loved me,now I know that it's true                      |             |               |
| 6  | 1984        | Jimmy quit, Jody got married                                                          |             |               |
| 7  | 1991        | Here it is the groove slightlytransformed, just a bit of a break fromthe norm |             |               |
| 8  | 1999        | And of course you can't become if youonly say what you would have done            |             |               |
| 9  | 2002        | And can't nobody stop the juice, sobaby, tell me, what's the use?                 |             |               |
| 10 | 2005        | You drive me crazy - just remember youcan burn me out, slow it down               |             |               |
| 11 | 2006        | She don't do major credit cards, Idoubt she does receipts                         |             |               |
| 12 | 2007        | Sipping whiskey out the bottle, notthinking 'bout tomorrow                        |             |               |
| 13 | 2008        | And you overthink, always speakcryptically                                        |             |               |
| 14 | 2014        | And we could be together, baby, aslong as skies are blue                          |             |               |
| 15 | 2023        | I could be the one, or your newaddiction                                          |             |               |
